

PRESS RELEASE

Château St. Gerlach joins a select group of five Dutch hotels recognised in international ranking

Château St. Gerlach recognised once again in the Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Choice Awards

Maastricht, 07 October 2026 – Château St. Gerlach has once again been included in the Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Choice Awards. Part of Oostwegel Collection, the estate is one of only five hotels in the Netherlands to earn a place in this year's international ranking. Based on the reviews of travellers from around the world, the recognition reflects guests' appreciation for the unique combination of Limburg heritage, nature, gastronomy and genuine hospitality.

The recognition caps a strong year for Oostwegel Collection. In 2026, Château Neercanne retained its two MICHELIN Keys, while Château St. Gerlach maintained its MICHELIN Key. In addition, Restaurant Château Neercanne retained its MICHELIN Star and was honoured with the MICHELIN Service Award 2026.

"These distinctions are a tremendous compliment to all our colleagues," says Camille Oostwegel, Owner and Managing Director of Oostwegel Collection. "The appreciation of travellers, together with recognition from leading international guides, confirms that our commitment to authentic heritage, heartfelt service and meaningful experiences resonates with guests. We are particularly proud to see Château St. Gerlach recognised once again in the Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Choice Awards."

There is also reason to celebrate on the culinary front. In 2026, Restaurant Château Neercanne retained its MICHELIN Star and additionally received the MICHELIN Service Award 2026. These distinctions recognise the close collaboration between the kitchen and front-of-house teams, where craftsmanship, attention to detail and genuine hospitality remain at the heart of every guest experience.

Oostwegel adds: "For us, these distinctions are not only a recognition of what we have achieved, but also an encouragement to continue evolving. Together with our teams, we remain committed to surprising guests with exceptional stays, inspiring gastronomy and a deep connection to place. In doing so, we continue to create hospitality that is meaningful and leaves lasting memories."
